National Girl Child Day

INTRODUCTION:

The celebration of the National Girl child day held by IQAC, West Guwahati College of Education, which was joined by the teacher trainees of B.Ed. 1st year and D.El.Ed 1st and 3rd semester. A drama play was performed by the students of B.Ed. 1st year based on the day as guided by Assistant Prof. Papari Medhi. The celebration was ended by a short interactive session by the Principal of West Guwahati College of Education Dr. Gitanjali Choudhury.

DRAMA PLAY:

The drama was started by an introduction song and was continued with four plays.

The first play was on the female infanticide which is still prevailing in today's world even after various laws and acts are being passed in order to stop the practice of female infanticide.

The second play was on the educational opportunities provided to the girl child. It depicted how the girls are deprived from equal educational facilities to the girls as the boys.

The third play was on the topic child marriage which is still prevailing in different parts of the world where the girls are deprived from complete education and are forced to get married at a very young age.

The fourth play was on the most common issue, molestation or sexual harassment. It depicted how the girls and women are not safe even in their own home.

INTERACTIVE SESSION:

In the interactive session we discussed various mottos of celebrating this day which may include various mottos such as providing equal opportunities to the girls, making them aware about their rights and responsibilities and also making them aware about the various problem a girl can face and the steps they can take in order to protect themselves from those problems, providing scholarships to the girls,etc,. We also discussed the various ways in which we can organize awarness programs on the protection on girl child among the communities which includes ways such as rally, social media , street plays, posters,etc.

CONCLUSION:

With the Drama play and discussions we came know a lot about the problems face by female even in today's world where there are various acts and laws enforced in order to protect the girl child and the steps that we as a citizen can take in order to solve it.
