

ZERO DISCRIMINATION DAY

IQAC, WGCE celebrated Zero Discrimination Day on 1st March, 2024. The symbol or the was 'Butterfly', which indicated transformation and freedom from discrimination. The aim of the event was to promote equality without any kind of discrimination irrespective of caste, religion and gender. The day was first celebrated on 1st March, 2014 and was launched by UNAIDS.

The institution has celebrated the day by organizing Group Discussion. The groups were divided into three topics namely, Caste, Gender and Religion. The students highlighted through the Group Discussion about the various aspects of the day drawing references to the Article 14 & 15 of the Indian Constitution. The students also discussed on the various issues in which gender discrimination is visible at places like workplace, family, politics, health, education etc. The Articles 14, 15, 16 & 29 were highlighted which provides equality before law. LGBT community and the discrimination faced by them in the form of social stigma, family and society. Government Acts were mentioned that were for the upliftment of women such as women education, Dowry Prohibition Act, Child Marriage Restraint Act etc.

The event proved to be a successful one with the participation of the students.

