To,

The Village Head (Gaon Bura)

Chandra, North Guwahati

Block: Bezera

Reference: Adoption of Village

Sir,

With due humble request, WGCE, Templeghat, Pandu wishes to adopt the village for the upliftment and enrichment of the community in regards to education, health, culture etc. The main objectives of the institution bring a linkage with the village people through various activities. As a teacher educator institution the prime aim of the institution is to inculcate the values of the would be teacher trainees.

Hence, the institution adopts this village as a resource for the students through which they can know what type of livelihood is carried by the agriculture based villagers. It is a great help for the institution if you as a head of the village allow the institution to do activities in different aspects. It would be a great help for the institution.

Madam,

With reference to subject cited above, I am to inform you that this Directorate is of the view that agreement in the form of MoU between West Guwahati College of Education and Pandu Fire & Emergency Service Station for the purpose of raising Awareness Campaign, Mock Drill etc. in Schools/Colleges may not be feasible owing to various emergency nature of duties of F&ES Stations.

Fire & Emergency Services, Assam is an important disaster responding agency and has a clear mandate to respond in all types of disasters and emergency situations both natural and man made. Besides, the F&ES Stations also organizes Awareness Campaigns, Mock Drill etc. at various establishments including schools/colleges/universities etc. as per their workplan within their respective jurisdiction without any MoU.

It is urged that all the schools/colleges under Pandu area may approach the local F&ES Stations for matter relating to implementation of Fire & Life Safety measures and organizing Mock Drill/Awareness program etc. on mutually agreed date.

It is however assured that all necessary assistance shall be extended to the college/school authorities by the Jurisdictional Officer concerned.

Yours faithfully,
